Pressing question 🤔: What if it's not possible to be on Twitter starting in the Rabbit month?

Since I schedule the dailies a month in advance, I wanted to know if I should bother to do that this month. I think it's a no, but I will probably do it anyway. It's the difference of one key stroke after all. I know it's time to leave but I don't want to.

I cast Hexagram 48, which of late, seems to come up every time I am casting or around someone who is. And I get it. The destruction of resources is a major theme of the year, especially natural resources, but in this case, it seems that Twitter is the Well we all keep going back to. It used to be a great resource, but not anymore. And yet, we persist.

With the changing line 4, an immediate answer is "A well bricked. No error". I think there are a couple of possible meanings here. One is the algorithm of Twitter has been changed so that we no longer are able to easily communicate with the people we follow and our followers. This was done on purpose. Another possible meaning might be that Twitter will be walled off due to cyberattack or malfunction. Shutting down may be called a temporary measure, but I think the changes that happen this month with Twitter will last. Why?

With changing line 4 we arrive at Hexagram 28, the Ridgepole. It's referring to a supporting beam of a roof, but a more familiar visual image might be a wooden dowel placed horizontally in the closet where you hang your clothes. When you put too many hangers on it, it bows and threatens to break.

"The ridgepole is warped; advantageous to have a place to go"

"Check on connections and loose ends"

I hope you've got other baskets for your eggs. It's time to invest in yourself and other people, rather than the next "platform". You know where to find me.

Wood Rabbit Month

Rabbit month, Rabbit year: a fluffle of bunnies gone fou. Here's one way to think of it. When grass reaches a critical mass with its underground root system, it's going to take multiple efforts to get rid of it. Maybe years. It depends on how deep you're willing to dig, or how much destruction you're willing to do. It's hard to stop that kind of energy.

It seems we have achieved or are close to achieving critical mass. We are starting to understand the strength of our numbers. This is when we push back. It's go time. This is when we say something, strike, protest, walk out, take up space. Not violently, but relentlessly. You don't need violence if you're not going to give up. Remember – we're a fluffle.

The Rabbit clashes with the Rooster, this month will mark the peak of that. However, the Rabbit also pulls in the Horse and the Rat in some kind of bizarre love triangle, bringing potential heartbreaks. Rabbits may this situation as a much deserved pay back. Be careful Rabbit, there is no end to revenge. Don't seek it without knowing that.

In this Water Rabbit year, the most obvious Noblemen are Rabbit and Snake. If you're a Water day stem person, this is a Nobleman month for you in a year of Nobleman energy which has to do with your achievements, talents and what you can produce. If you're in an academic world, or a writer, Rabbit years might be some of the most satisfying for you. Try it, you'll like it.

If you're a yang Wood day stem person, I want you to know this ongoing instability is peaking now. This is something you'll be coping with all year, but not at the level you are this month. Remember that more than one thing can be true at the same time. You can experience good and bad luck at the same time.

If you're a yang Earth day stem person, watch your words. If you're going to piss off the boss, do it intentionally, to serve your purpose. Think before you speak. When your words are eloquent you might get whatever you want.

No matter what your day stem, this is a whole month of Nobleman energy in terms of the year so you can benefit too. If you want to harness that, make sure you're getting projects underway now. Talking time is over. With the Nobleman energy you may find there are more people around willing to assist you, whether that involves chasing big dreams or getting a dentist appointment.

People on my mind this month are Christopher Bouzy who was born in 1975, a Wood Rabbit year, and Caroline Orr, born in 1989, an Earth Snake year like my hero AOC. Bouzy has a Snake month, but he's not going to out Snake Caroline, who was raised by them and has proven herself as an adept investigator. With the potential demise of Twitter, I thought I would just head over to Spoutible and resume business as usual, but now I'm not so sure given what Caroline has exposed.

I don't know if you've read my 3 Part "Forecast" for the Water Rabbit year, so forgive me if I'm repeating myself, but this month all roads lead to Mom. Do something for yours, whether that's giving them a call, visiting, planting a tree or simply acknowledging our Earth with gratitude.

Star 7 Month

If you're trying to get your money, either get paid what you are owed or get refunds, this is your month.

In this Wood Rabbit month we have Star 7 in the middle with Star 4. This illustrates a situation that is very much related to the clash of Rabbit (yin wood) and Rooster (yin metal). 4 is Wood, 7 is Metal. The trigrams for these stars represent the oldest sister and the youngest sister. Elementally they do not cooperate. This is often the case in real life too. It's the younger who has the advantage this month, which is pretty much in keeping with all this Rabbit energy.

If you haven't already placed water in the center for an annual cure, you can do it now. That would be a bowl of fresh water changed daily. Surface area is more helpful than depth. Start on March 6th.

Annual San Sha is in the W, monthly San Sha is in the W. Any Feng Shui adjustments can be done on March 6th this month.

Enhance & Mitigate

SW Face SW for learning. Yin Earth day stem people can occupy the SW for most of the year for potential financial gain or partnership.

W Stay out or you may find yourself in constant conflict and aggression.

NW Be here to partner with power in the Rabbit month. It's risky but could bring big rewards. Don't attempt if your health is compromised. Add Metal or T'ang lung if you haven't already placed as an annual cure.

Remember, these adjustments can be done in the noted locations of the house OR the locations of a room. Cures are not meant to be used in bedrooms.

Animal Fortunes

卯 Rabbit

Years: 1939, 1951, 1963, 1975, 1987, 1999, 2011, 2023

Month: March roughly

Changes are needed and it's go time. Make what is wrong, right. Learn and give/get advice. Join the "kerfluffle". Unite with the like-minded. Exist in relationship.

Hint: You don't have to bop anyone on the head. Not literally anyway.

辰 Dragon

Years: 1940, 1952, 1964, 1976, 1988, 2000, 2012, 2024

Month: April roughly

Consider what you want to be doing in 2024 and what stands in the way of that. You can dissolve some blockages now. Reverse engineering will reveal how you get there; a possible path.

Hint: What if the idea of money limiting your options is an illusion or excuse?

巳 Snake

Years: 1941, 1953, 1965, 1977, 1989, 2001, 2013, 2025

Month: May roughly

Fans appear. Lots of ideas this month that you could probably turn into reality pretty quickly if you want to. People recognize the ways you've been harassed or even bullied.

Hint: Check in with mom, whatever that means to you.

午 Horse

Years: 1942, 1954, 1966, 1978, 1990, 2002, 2014, 2026

Month: June roughly

Sometimes you're needy and sometimes you just think you are. Don't let past hard times blinker you. Let go of what is already over. Careful of being a "user".

Hint: Follow through. Keep promises. Learn new tricks.

未 Sheep

Years: 1943, 1955, 1967, 1979, 1991, 2003, 2015, 2027

Month: July roughly

Connections with power keep stabilizing your brief skirmishes with criticism or push back throughout the year. Don't lean too heavily on that. Manners still matter.

Hint: Strengthen your networks to deepen your foundation.

申 Monkey

Years: 1944, 1956, 1968, 1980, 1992, 2004, 2016, 2028

Month: August roughly

No more skiing through trees. In fact, now you can use the Rabbit's Wood to make yourself stronger and more flexible. Kind of like Popeye eating spinach.

Hint: Tend to domestic matters. Repair and maintain, yourself included.

酉 Rooster

Years: 1945, 1957, 1969, 1981, 1993, 2005, 2017, 2029

Month: September roughly

It's good to get unpleasant experiences out of the way and move on, isn't it? Follow your instincts, not your fear. If you feel strong, you might get big advantages. If you're on shaky ground, lay low.

Hint: Look for the small successes. You can easily manage those.

戌 Dog

Years: 1946, 1958, 1970, 1982, 1994, 2006, 2018, 2030

Month: October roughly

This is where you find out how much back up you really have this year. If not, why not? If true, I recommend you protect the source of it. Make partnerships mutually beneficial.

Hint: In other words, don't take your good luck for granted. Use power appropriately.

亥 Pig

Years: 1947, 1959, 1971, 1983, 1995, 2007, 2019, 2031

Month: November roughly

A visit with Mom or other family is probably on the agenda. I hope you're also launching projects you want to grow this year. This window may only last until July. If you don't want to peak early, don't.

Hint: All sorts of endorsements are available now. It's worth a little effort.

子 Rat

Years: 1936, 1948, 1960, 1972, 1984, 1996, 2008, 2020

Month: December roughly

Perceive. What you said and did in 2020 is now mirrored back to you. How's that working out? If it's not what you expected or wanted, what might you have done differently?

Hint: You can do it differently now. Don't wait.

丑 Ox

Years: 1937, 1949, 1961, 1973, 1985, 1997, 2009, 2021

Month: January roughly

Might put up the open sign again, might not. You don't always have to keep regular hours Ox. Favor rest and care of the body over other routines. Let other matters take a lower priority if you can.

Hint: Your kind of spontaneity is probably a time out. Why not?

寅 Tiger

Years: 1938, 1950, 1962, 1974, 1986, 1998, 2010, 2022

Month: February roughly

If the ground feels shaky under your feet, have a seat. Get outdoors. Get some sun. It appears there is no serious business for you to do this month. Rest while you can. You know that won't last!

Hint: If you've been exhausting yourself, stop it. Boost your immunity instead.

Solar Fortnights

First Fortnight: Jing Zhe 驚蟄 (Startled Insects) March 6th 04:31

I don't know what's going on in your neck of the woods, but in the PNW the insects were out in February, which isn't what I would call normal. Now they have disappeared again. We're getting late hail and snow with lots of wind. The wind is normal at this time of year, but much stronger than usual. I wonder if that's to do with the 4 Star in the SW this month. Up here in Seattle, the strongest wind and storms normally come out of the SW.

Second Fortnight: Chun Fen 春分 (Spring Equinox) March 21st 05:20

Solar and lunar timing converge as this day also brings the New Moon, again. We saw this timing last month too. As I said before, when there's a lot going on in the sky, so it will be on earth.

Phases of the Moon

March 7th

Lunar Month Wood Rabbit

Full Moon (Worm Moon) 04:40 PST

If you use crystals for protection or repelling, wait for another time to put them out under the full moon to restore their power.

March 21st

Lunar Month Fire Dragon

New Moon 10:23 PDT

I recommend waiting for a more auspicious moon to wash and recharge crystals such as rose quartz or other crystals meant to nurture or attract.

Remove Days

A Remove Day is the second day in the sequence of the 12 Day Officers. These days are designated for removal but not every Remove Day is a helpful day. For satisfying results, watch for the ones that are.

Remove Days are appropriate for intensive cleaning or discarding clutter. Get rid of rodents or invasive insects, break habits or break up. Schedule surgery or other medical/dental treatments and procedures on a favorable Remove Day if you can.

There are four Remove Days this month, with one crossing over into the Fire Dragon month. None are helpful. I find it interesting that in a timing where we may be feeling shortages there are no good Remove Days. Maybe we are supposed to be saving, maintaining, repairing and using what we have.

Saturday March 11th

Not a usable Remove Day. See Dailies for details.

Thursday March 23rd

Not a usable Remove Day. See Dailies for details.

Tuesday April 4th

Not a usable Remove Day. See Dailies for details.

Wednesday April 5th

Personalized Date Selection

These dates apply to more than your birth year. Find any one of your four pillars in the personalized dates – that's your lucky day! The position of the pillar will give further nuance to the nature of the good fortune. The elemental implications of the stems & branches and their relationship to your day stem will reveal more specifics about what to expect.

Year Pillar:	Has to do with your physical body and what you do with it, ancestors, family traits. In terms of luck the year pillar is said to take the first “hit” of any event, good or bad.
Month Pillar:	Relates to career, work environment, training, age mates and peers, siblings, exes and your modus operandi
Day Pillar:	Yourself and true partner; your immediate environment and home life
Hour Pillar:	The innermost you, your children, future, hopes and dreams.

The numbers that follow each Stem (Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal, Water) indicate the year that matches the pillar. The animal name at the end will tell the Branch.

For example, when you see "Metal 90 Horse" that's because 1990 is a Metal Horse year.

Here's what you may not have known: the Metal Horse Pillar could be in your BaZi even if it's not your year and it counts too! There are also Metal Horse months, days and hours. So - to get the most out of the Serious Dailies you need to know all four of your pillars: Year, Month, Day, Hour.
